RESPONSE. RESOLVE. RECOVERY.

REVISED OCTOBER 12, 2001: UPDATES AVAILABLE AT www.americanexpress.com/smallbusinessoutreach

We have all been deeply affected by the tragic events of September 11th. Our hearts and prayers go out to those who mourn the loss of family and friends.

Like so many in our city, country and around the world, we will forever be indebted to those who have given so much in responding to this crisis. We will never forget the resolve New Yorkers have shown. And we have no doubt, New York will recover.

We know how much of a struggle it can be just to find the right information, talk to the right person, and get the right help. This pamphlet is a beginning.

Directly or indirectly, so many of our small business customers and merchants in New York have been affected. From questions about federal aid to insurance problems to the need for office space, we're finding many businesses may not know where to turn for answers. We've put together this reference guide to help give you those answers.

At American Express, we've always realized how the courage, determination and entrepreneurial spirit of business owners very much epitomize the American spirit. We've never taken more pride in being able to help you than now – and in the weeks and months to come.

American Express Customer Information

American Express Small Business Customers

- This event may have caused a variety of disruptions to your business from simple mail delivery to financial shortfalls. The American Express Web sites and phone numbers below may provide some assistance with your American Express Account and assist you in financial recovery.

Accessing Your Card Account

- Our Card services remain uninterrupted. You can always check your account information and/or pay your bill online at www.americanexpress.com/smallbusiness.
- To pay your bill by phone call 1-800-472-9297 or, to pay your bill in person, visit an American Express Travel Office.
- To change your billing address or telephone number and for all other inquiries call 1-800-326-1524 or the number on the back of your Corporate Card.

Accessing Financing

- Your best source for low-interest, long-term loan assistance at this time is probably the U.S. Small Business Administration (see "Applying for Federal Relief"). However, if you do not qualify or need additional financing, these American Express Financial Services listed below can be viable options.

Small Business Loans

- As an American Express customer, the application process for a Small Business Loan is short. And once approved access to funds is quick. You may borrow from $10,000 to $50,000, and the repayment terms are flexible.
- To learn more, call 1-800-403-1288.

Business Credit Line

- To cover unexpected shortages of cash flow, our line of credit allows you to borrow as needed and make payments over time. You can access your Business Credit Line with checks or your Business Credit Line Card.
- To learn more, go to www.americanexpress.com/smallbusiness or call 1-888-439-3788.

Assistance for Merchants

Authorizations and Submissions Issues

- The American Express authorization center has not been impacted. However, businesses with disrupted phone service might experience problems with authorizations or submissions. Businesses should verify with their phone companies that their service is working properly.
- To obtain voice authorization if point-of-sale terminal authorization is not available, call 1-800-528-2121. (The voice authorization fees will be waived for merchants in the impacted ZIP codes through October 31, 2001.)
- Businesses with an American Express terminal that are unable to connect for authorizations or submissions, call 1-800-851-5948.

Payment Issues

- The American Express payment system has not been impacted. To convert from check payments to Automatic Clearing House (ACH) deposits directly into your bank account, call 1-800-528-5200.

Financial Reconciliation Reports and Inquiry/Ticket Retrievals

- If you have not received Reconciliation Reports and/or Inquiries, please contact the postal service at 212-967-8585 to determine if your mail is being held. You may avoid delays by receiving your Reconciliation Reports and Inquiries online by enrolling in Online Merchant Services at www.americanexpress.com/merchant or calling 1-800-528-5200.
- If you are using SE Workstation, your Reconciliation Reports and Inquiries should be available. Due to the increase in volume you may experience some busy signals. We apologize for any delay and are in the process of expanding the number of ports to accommodate the increases. We suggest that you attempt to retrieve your files early in the morning or after business hours if possible.
- For all other inquiries please call 1-800-528-5200.

Applying for Federal Relief

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is coordinating the federal relief effort. The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is working in partnership with FEMA. They will provide low-interest, long-term loans to repair or replace uninsured or underinsured losses. Businesses must begin the application process by registering with FEMA by calling 800-462-9029, or 800-462-7585 for the hearing impaired. The deadline for applying is November 10, 2001.

You can also visit the FEMA/NY State/NYC-Disaster Assistance Service Center in Downtown Manhattan-141 Worth Street (at Centre Street, former DMV location)

Hours: Monday to Friday, 10 am to 8 pm

Saturday-Sunday, 10 am to 2 pm (dates and hours of operation are subject to change)

Call the FEMA help line for current information at 800-525-0321.

The information you will need includes:

- The street address of your damaged property
- Your current mailing address and a telephone number where you can be reached if you have been forced to relocate
- Your Social Security Number
- The gross income of your business
- Information on the type of insurance coverage you have

There are two types of SBA loans:

Business Physical Disaster Loans for Small Businesses

- Loans to repair/replace disaster damage to property owned by the business, including real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory/supplies. Businesses of any size may be eligible. Nonprofit organizations may also be eligible.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL) for Small Businesses

- Loans for working capital to assist small businesses through the disaster recovery period.
These loans cover operating expenses the business could have afforded to pay if the disaster had not occurred.

For more information, visit www.sba.gov or call 800-659-2955. Deadline for applying is June 11, 2002.
